

June 2011

English Garden Lecture

The history and Landscape conservation

By Kazuo Asahiro, Doctor of design Associate professor

Sat. 9th July, 2011 at 13:30
Fukuoka Asian Museum 8F Ajibi Hall
Fee is Free

Please contact The Fukuoka Japan-British Society
For registration :

Tel:092-476-2155 Fax:092-476-2634

Email: fjbs.tomoike@dolphin.ocn.ne.jp

“This time, I'd like to trip of English garden's passion and history with his photos, and guided by Roy Strong book "The Gardens through the Ages (1420-1940), Conran octopus, 1992."He pointed out now is the time of Nostalgia of garden design. However, Great Britain is the garden island where we should learn more from them as 21 century's paradigm, way of thinking " Conservation". I'm looking forward to have this time with member of The Fukuoka Japan-British Society.

By Mr. Asahiro

Mr. Kazuo Asahiro Profile

Environment and heritage design, Faculty of design, Kyushu university.

Research area: Landscape conservation and restoration.

Fukuoka forestry network, representative.

Japan conservation volunteer network, director.

Landscape conservation and restoration lab's member have been learned from history and nature for designing harmonized relationship, man and nature. We study following theme so far.

- Deciduous tree and ground flora conservation in urban forest reserve.
- Practical countryside conservation volunteer activity corporate with British trust for conservation volunteers in Japan.
- Rural research of Teknaf peninsula, Bangladesh. etc.

The Fukuoka Japan-British Society

8120011 3-6 Hakataekimae 1-chome , Hakata-ku, Fukuoka